

MODELS OF ISLAMIC ARCHITECTURE IN DAMASCUS

Hissah Obaid S Alshammari, Professor
Princess Nourah bent Abdul Rahman University
Saudi Arabia

Abstract

Damascus was a center and a great example indicative of the emergence of Islamic architecture and its evolution until the Ottoman period, and we will review in this paper are the most prominent features of this architecture and examples through historical eras different, such as: the Umayyad Mosque, Almemmarstan Nouri, Damascus Citadel, school Adleah, school Aljqmqeah, Aldahreah school, mosque and bath Altaurizi, hospice Sulaymaniyah, Azem Palace.